HARBOR CITY NEWS NOTES

Mr. and Mrs. George Myerscough of 2264 25th street, Harbor City, entertained friends on Sunday from Los Angeles. The guests were Mr. and Mrs. Murdock and daughters Bettie and Gracie, and Mr. and Mrs. Morgan and family. The Los Angeles visitors also paid a visit to Charles and William Eickhoff, 254th street. They were all old-time friends and neighbors back in Homestead, Pa., and always like to get together and talk over old times.

Mr. and Mrs. Fryer and family have just arrived in Harbor City from New Mexico and are visiting at the home of Mrs. Fryer's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Dryer, on 25th street. The prospects around here look good to them and they intend to make Harbor City their home.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Walter of 261st street were among those who attended the Ladies' Aid luncheon at the Harbor City Community church on Tuesday.

Miss Addie Hostetter of Bellefonte avenue underwent an operation at the Seaside hospital, Long Beach, on Wednesday, and is reported to be improving rapidly.

Mrs. Lula Doane of 2141 West 261st street underwent an operation at the Seaside hospital, Long Beach, for the removal of adenoids and tonsils. Mrs. Doane is a teacher in the Lomita schools, and it will be several days before she will be able to attend to her duties.

Mr. and Mrs. Dryer have the foundation laid for a five-room stucco house on 257th street between Bellefonte and Senator avenues.

Mrs. Hemminway, formerly of Harbor City, near a resident of Santa Ana, was a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Hiram Carpenter Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray McArthur of 2140 Weston street, Harbor City, were entertained by friends in Culver City this week.

R. D. Mills of Weston street had the misfortune to break his arm some time ago, and for some reason it has never healed properly. He is now in the Good Samaritan hospital, Los Angeles.

Mrs. A. B. Rozell has returned to Harbor City after a visit of five weeks with her parents in Rock Island and brothers in Houston, Tex. Mrs. Rozell is very pleased to be home again.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Aspitte, who have been staying at 2136 Weston street for the past six months, left this week for Riverside, where they intend to make their home.

Mrs. H. F. Thorpe is the new teacher of the B-6, A-6 and B-7 classes, formerly in charge of Mrs. Elsie K. Myers of Lomita, who has resigned.

Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Bauman of Santa Rosa were visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Roy McArthur on Weston street Tuesday.

J. Walter of 261st street has leased the Mabee property at 1651 Walnut street. The interior of the modern house is being redecorated and the exterior is undergoing repairs and improvements. Mr. Walter will move some time this week.

The fire department is making plans for an invitation leap year dance to be held in the near future.

M. B. Wink, manager of the Oil Well Supply company of Pittsburgh, Pa., was in town this week. Mr. Wink stated that when the building at Normandie avenue and Weston street is completed he will employ a permanent force of several men in the office and warehouse. The building will have a frontage of 90 feet on Weston street and extend for 200 feet along Normandie avenue.

Jenks & Mayer, landscape gardeners, of San Pedro, have purchased the triangular lot at the corner of 262nd street and Redondo boulevard and will make a miniature park.

You don't want to miss the P.-T.A. bazaar Thursday, Feb. 14, at the firemen's pavilion. The doors open at 5 p.m. The Boy Scouts, Rose club and the American Legion of Torrance will have booths. A number of selections will be rendered by the school orchestra, and it is expected that Mrs. Inneson's orchestra will also play. There'll be hot tamales and homemade pies, popcorn, candy, peanuts and soft drinks. It bids fair to be the most successful event of the season.

MUST WAIT

"Dick proposed to me last night," Marjorie announced, excitedly.
"Oh! Did he?" exclaimed Virginia.
"Yes, and I just adore Dick. He's so handsome?"
"And did you accept him?" Virginia queried. "Are you engaged?"
Marjorie replied: "That's the sad part of it. Dick is just the most wonderful person on earth, but I had to tell him that I just couldn't be engaged to him right away. Why, it will take me at least a week to break off the engagement I have with Tom!"

STUBBORN

Mrs. Jones is quite sure she has the most stubborn husband in the world. She told Mrs. Smith as much the other day.
"He can't be any more stubborn than mine," Mrs. Smith replied.
"Oh, yes, I'm sure he must be. Yesterday I had an engagement to meet him at 3 o'clock. Well, it was nearly 4:30 when I got there, and he won't admit yet that the rest he got while he was waiting did him any good."

There will be card tables for those not caring to dance, at the Legion Auxiliary Valentine's Party February 14th.—Adv.
